Courses in this department are designed for the older adult, lifelong learner. The part-time faculty in the Health and Wellness Department may be assigned courses which have a lecture/lab split. This means part-time faculty members must lecture as part of a lecture/lab (applied health) class.

Core subjects in this department include:

Lecture: Consumer Health; Age-Related Health Risk Factors; Geropsychology-perspectives on aging

Lecture/Lab: Healthful-Living; Nutrition; Lab emphasizes in aerobics, aquatic fitness, balance and mobility, brain health, chair exercise, circuit training, Pilates, sequential stretching, tai chi, and yoga.

Assignments:

Assignments may include morning, midday, and evening courses scheduled Monday-Saturday including in-person and/or online modalities. Some teaching assignments may be for classes offered to students asynchronously. In-person teaching assignments will primarily be off-campus, throughout south Orange County at various teaching sites with required travel between sites. Part-time faculty will be required to utilize CANVAS which is the Learning Management System of Saddleback College.

Minimum Qualifications:

For a noncredit course intended for older adults, either pattern (1) or pattern(2) following:

(1) Bachelor's degree with a major related to the subject of the course taught and either (A) or (B) below:

(A) Thirty hours or two-semester units of coursework or classwork in understanding the needs of the older adult, taken at an accredited institution of higher education or approved by the district.

This requirement may be completed concurrently during the first year of employment as a noncredit instructor;
