initiatives? If so, we invite you to consider this exciting opportunity at Butte College.

Why You'll Love This Role:

- 1. Passion-Driven Opportunity: Bring your energy and enthusiasm to the table! As our Executive Assistant, you'll collaborate with various departments, ensuring seamless operations across the District.
- 2. Tech-Savvy Skills: Your proficiency in modern office software applications is essential. From Word to Excel, Outlook, and PowerPoint, your technical skill set will be strongly utilized to prepare and drive financial insights. Use your creativity to craft financial and statistical reporting, create impactful graphs, and deliver compelling presentations that support the Vice President for Administrative Services.
- 3. Keen Eye for Detail: Dive into financial reporting, budgets, audits, and narrative development. Your meticulous attention to detail will be critical in ensuring accuracy and excellence.
- 4. Adaptability: With upcoming software implementations, your analytical and technical prowess will be crucial for providing ad hoc data support.

The Vice President for Administrative Services oversees key operational areas of the college that include budgeting, facilities management, information technology, business contracts, risk management and auxiliary services. In addition to supporting routine administrative tasks, strong organizational, communication and prioritization skills are essential. You will be a vital part of our success in Administrative Services.

If you're ready to make an impact and be part of an incredible team that values excellence, apply today! Let's empower our district's success together!
