Assignments are given with general guidelines and incumbents are responsible for establishing objectives, timelines, and methods to deliver work products or services. Work is typically reviewed upon completion for soundness, appropriateness, and conformity to policy and requirements. This class is distinguished from the Executive Assistant classification series in that the latter acts in a higher-level capacity and provides highly responsible and complex professional assistance to a Vice President or Vice Chancellor.

Select positions in this classification are designated as "confidential" as this term is used within the Educational Employment Relations Act (EERA), 3540.1(c). "Confidential" positions in this classification assist management personnel with developing collective bargaining proposals and/or have regular access to information which contributes to the development of management's collective bargaining positions and/or labor relations strategies.

EXAMPLES OF TYPICAL FUNCTIONS (Illustrative Only)

1. Provides advanced and complex administrative support to assigned dean, director, or management staff; acts as a liaison between the dean, director, and management staff with other staff or the public, coordinating resolutions to issues, problems, and complaints as appropriate.
