The Vice Chancellor of Educational Services and Planning reports to the Chancellor at the District Office. This is a full time, 12 months per year, executive management position.

POSITION PURPOSE

Reporting to the Chancellor, the Vice Chancellor of Educational Services and Planning provides overall leadership and oversight responsibility for districtwide instructional programs, educational support services, strategic planning and leadership support for accreditation. Areas of responsibilities include but not limited to institutional research, strategic planning, accreditation, curriculum management and instructional effectiveness initiatives related to student success, enrollment management, community education, online learning, and East San Jose educational partnership.

NATURE AND SCOPE

As a member of the Chancellors cabinet team, the Vice Chancellor of Educational Services and Planning acts as senior advisor to the Chancellor in matters pertaining to the support of district-wide functions such as institutional effectiveness, statewide student success mandates, curriculum compliance, community educational partnership, strategic planning and Board policies.

KEY DUTIES and RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Serve as the chief advisor to the Chancellor on strategic matters related to districtwide educational research and planning.
2. Provide overall leadership to educational services programs, research and strategic planning under the direction of the Chancellor, and in collaboration with College Presidents, Vice Presidents, college administrators, and the appropriate shared governance groups.
3. Oversee the development and implementation of educational and student services policies and participate in the formulation of organizational objectives, policies and strategies in accordance with the Districts mission.
4. Direct the development and implementation of the District Strategic Plan. Collaborate with the colleges in the development of the college Educational Master Plans and Student Success Plans.
5. Oversee the instructional program inventory; review and monitor the instructional and student support programs and common course list in collaboration with the college Vice Presidents.

6. Provide leadership to the district institutional research team and manage a repository and dashboard of institutional data; develop and distribute relevant facts and reports as necessary.
7. Direct timely and accurate preparation of records, reports, summaries and projections of data related to instructional and student services, funding, and the implementation of short- and long-range plans. Coordinate the completion of district reports for federal, state, and local agencies relative to student success and support.
8. Serve as a resource to the district for educational planning, research, outcomes assessment, program review, improvement, and accreditation.
9. Ensure action plans and program review processes for academic and student support programs are completed and evaluated in a thorough and timely manner and those results are integrated into strategic staffing, facilities, and budgetary planning processes of the District.
10. Utilize data to evaluate and recommend programs, standards, policies and procedures within the parameters of the state and federal laws to meet District goals for assigned educational programs and services.
11. Support the Districts strategic enrollment management efforts, including serving as a lead on the Districts enrollment management task force.
12. Provide leadership, coordination and support for districtwide educational partnership programs including K-12 school districts, other community college districts, public and private post-secondary institutions, and the East San Jose Educational Partnership.
13. Provide leadership support in the accreditation process. Support the colleges in coordination of ACCJC site visits to include coordinating dates, schedules, and logistical reports.
14. Recommend to the Chancellor and others as appropriate changes in the organization and operating policies and procedures that affect District educational services and planning.
15. Review legislation, legal mandated regulations, and guidelines that may affect student support and academic affairs of the District and advise the Chancellor and the Board of Trustees.
16. Confer and collaborate with vice presidents to support the process of developing and evaluating student learning outcomes for all academic and support services programs. Prepare reports and provide feedback to the Chancellor and the entire District community.
