Description

Equity and Diversity

The District is strongly committed to achieving staff diversity and the principles of equal opportunity employment. The District encourages a diverse pool of applicants and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, age, religion, marital status, disability, or sexual orientation in any of its policies, procedures or practices. In fact, the college encourages applications from all segments of qualified people.

Closing Date

This position will close on February 1, 2025 at 11:59 PM.

College Profile

Cerritos College is ranked 14th among the top 100 schools with the highest Hispanic enrollment in the United States by the United States Department of Education. Cerritos College serves as a comprehensive community college for southeastern Los Angeles County. Communities within the college's district include Artesia, Bellflower, Cerritos, Downey, Hawaiian Gardens, La Mirada, Norwalk, and portions of Bell Gardens, Lakewood, Long Beach, Santa Fe Springs, and South Gate. Cerritos College offers degrees and certificates in more than 180 areas of study in nine divisions. Enrollment currently averages 20,000 students. Visit Cerritos College online at <http://www.cerritos.edu>.

Department Profile

The English department is in the Liberal Arts division at Cerritos College and is one of the largest departments on campus. The successful candidate will join 24 full-time and more than 50 part-time faculty in serving a highly diverse student body.

The successful candidate for this position will be assigned to teach courses that may include composition (co-requisite, transfer-level, and advanced classes), creative writing, or literature classes. Courses are offered in online, hybrid, and face-to-face formats. English faculty will be expected to work collaboratively with college success programs, interdisciplinary departments, and dual enrollment partnerships to support students in their academic and personal goals. A commitment to equity-minded pedagogy and addressing the needs of disproportionately impacted populations are priorities of the department.
