Austin Community College is a public two-year institution that serves a multicultural population of approximately 41,000 credit students each Fall and Spring semester. We embrace our identity as a community college, as reflected in our mission statement. We promote student success and community development by providing affordable access, through traditional and distance learning modes, to higher education and workforce training, including appropriate applied baccalaureate degrees, in our service area.

As a community college committed to our mission, we seek to recruit and retain a workforce that:

- Values intellectual curiosity and innovative teaching
- Is attracted by the college's mission to promote equitable access to educational opportunities
- Cares about student success and collaborates on strategies to facilitate success for populations including; first generation college students, low-income students, and students from underserved communities.
- Focused on student academic achievement and postgraduate outcomes
- Welcomes difference and models respectful interaction with others
- Engages with the community both within and outside of ACC

Job Posting Title:

Faculty, Allied Health Sciences

Job Description Summary:

The Allied Health Sciences Faculty supports learning on campus, virtually, and through clinical experiences. Responsible to prepare and deliver coursework in engaging, innovative, and discipline-appropriate ways that reflect a commitment to student success and creating an environment that promotes belonging for all. This position starts in August 2025.

Job Description:

The Allied Health Sciences Department's main responsibility is providing prerequisite and co-requisite courses to prepare students for success in other Health Sciences degree and certificate programs at ACC or at other accredited institutions. To that end, every effort has been made to design and offer a range of courses designed to meet student needs and facilitate student success.
