General Statement

The ESOL instructor is a member of a team of professionals that implement the mission and vision of Quinsigamond Community College's, Adult Community Learning Center. The instructor is primarily responsible for the preparation and presentation of instruction that is relevant to our students' lives, using the program's curriculum that is aligned with Massachusetts ELPS (English Language Proficiency Standards). Our instructors are closely involved in the assessment of student skills including ongoing communication with the students regarding their progress toward their individual goals. This is a part-time (PT), English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) Instructor position that is funded through a grant from the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE).

Supervision Received

The ESOL instructor reports to the Program Coordinator of the Adult Community Learning Center.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Prepare, maintain, and submit electronic weekly class plans aligned to the program's curriculum and interests of students.
- Integrate civics education, digital literacy, financial literacy, and workforce preparation in the classroom that is aligned to WIOA priorities.
- Provide rigorous academic instruction in the core ESOL areas of reading, writing, speaking, and listening to adult learners.
- Meet individually with students once per semester to review their progress. Conferences should include examples of student work, informal and formal assessments, and completed conference forms.
- Prepare and distribute a course syllabus to the students at the start of each semester.
- Develop and implement class educational objectives based on students' needs.
- Communicate frequently with individual students regarding their progress towards their goals.
- Work collaboratively with other teachers in the program to ensure a curriculum that is coordinated across levels.
- Attend and participate in staff meetings including common planning, curriculum development and ongoing professional and program development activities.
- Complete 10 hours of professional development each school year.
