Requisition Number: FAC00527

General Description

The Community College of Philadelphia's Division of Workforce Development is seeking a dedicated and professional Massage Therapy Practicum (Bodywork) Instructor to join our instructional team. Workforce Development strives to be the preferred training partner for regional businesses and organizations by offering high-quality, non-credit training and continuing professional education programs that serve both incumbent workers and individuals entering the workforce.

We are seeking a licensed massage therapy professional who is committed to student success and understands the diverse backgrounds, needs, and strengths of our student population. The ideal candidate will foster a respectful and inclusive instructional environment, while helping students build the academic knowledge and professional demeanor necessary to succeed in the massage therapy industry after graduation.

The Massage Therapy Practicum Instructor will be responsible for delivering supervised practicum course as part of our non-credit Massage Therapy Program. This role includes providing hands-on training, mentorship, and evaluation of student performance in both clinical and simulated environments.

College Intro

Community College of Philadelphia is an open-admission, predominantly Black institution and a minority-serving institution which provides access to higher education for all who may benefit. CCP's Strategic Plan affirms the College's long-standing commitment to quality, access, affordability and upward mobility while including an emphasis on diversity, equity and inclusion. This plan firmly plants student success at the center of all efforts, establishing the means for each student to achieve their goals.

Teaching faculty are an integral part of the larger Academic and Student Success Division at CCP including Workforce Development or Career Training. The Academic and Student Success Division is a community of learners committed to student success as demonstrated through equitable and measurable outcomes, innovative practices, relevant curriculum, quality learning, and a rewarding student experience. As a minority-serving institution, CCP faculty contribute significantly to our collective efforts to improve student success and eliminate racial equity gaps through the utilization of inclusive and high-quality teaching practices.
