Position Title: Student Success Navigator, City College for Municipal Employment

Requisition Number: SCA00828

General Description

The City College for Municipal Employment is a strategic community and workforce initiative in partnership with the City of Philadelphia, Philadelphia Works, and the School District of Philadelphia that prepares Philadelphia residents for municipal jobs. Reporting to the Associate Director, the Student Success Navigator, provides high-quality recruitment, intake, onboarding, orientation, and bridge experiences designed to get students off to a solid and supported start. The Success Navigator will work with the entire City College Academy team, Enrollment Management, Educational Support Services, and other areas at the College to successfully take students from the application and enrollment process through orientation, bridge, and onboarding, providing a broad range of guided supports and services to the students. The Success Navigator also works with other members of the City College Academy team to support students as they near completion of their workforce pathway training and prepare to transition to the municipal employment process. This includes, but not limited to, ensuring the students meet all eligibility requirements for a seamless onboarding experience; helping students' complete application, supporting students in the financial aid process, identifying potential barriers to success and connecting them to supports and resources at the outset; connecting all students to their respective Success Coach and working with students throughout their time at the City College Academy to ensure student success and completion.
