- Master's degree in Communication Studies or Speech Communication from an accredited institution with emphasis or study in the teaching areas outlined above.
- Experience equivalent to teaching one course per quarter/semester for a full academic year at the college level.
- Evidence of teaching competence. Acceptable forms of documentation may include student, peer, and/or supervisory evaluations.
- Proficiency in classroom instructional technology and learning management system technology.

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Additional experience in teaching a variety of teaching modalities, specifically fully asynchronous online and hybrid/blended classes.
- Prior community college teaching experience.

Person hired must be able to provide acceptable documentation of U.S. Citizenship or lawful authorization to work in the United States. This is an absolute condition of employment. An offer of employment will not carry with it any responsibility or obligation on the part of the district to sponsor an H1-B visa. In addition, the Spokane Colleges maintain a drug-free work environment and prohibits all smoking in the college buildings and state-owned vehicles. Must be able to successfully work in and promote a multicultural work and education environment.

Prior to a new hire, a background check including criminal record history will be conducted. Information from the background check will not necessarily preclude employment but will be considered in determining the applicant's suitability and competence to perform in the position. Once an applicant is chosen for a position, they are required to complete and submit a declaration regarding sexual misconduct and investigation per state law.

Benefits Information

Adjunct faculty must work two (2) consecutive quarters at 50% or more of full-time academic load in order to qualify for benefits (based on instructional hours only). Once determined to be eligible, benefits begin on the first day of the month following the beginning of the quarter. Medical, dental, life and long term disability insurance benefits are provided as currently administered under Public Employees Benefits Board; TIAA-Cref retirement plan or WA State Retirement Plan; leave accruals and usage are governed by the faculty master contract.
