The District, based in the heart of Silicon Valley, includes two colleges-West Valley College and Mission College-and serves a workforce as diverse as its student body.

Reporting to the Executive Director of Human Resources, Employee Relations, this position is a lead-level specialist role that will provide advanced technical support to management and staff in employee relations, labor relations, compliance, leave management, and training coordination. The HR Specialist III will be a resource and technical lead to other HR staff, manage sensitive and confidential employee relations casework, and work collaboratively with supervisors and managers to ensure consistency and compliance with District policies, the collective bargaining agreement, and applicable laws.

If you have the knowledge, skills, and lived experience to help us meet the cultural and educational needs of our diverse faculty and staff, we encourage you to apply.

Assignment:

100% of full time, 40 hours per week, 12 months per year, with an anticipated start date of December 2025. Schedule may change to include some evening or weekend hours, as needed. This position is a member of the Confidential Employee Unit.

Work Location: District Office, Human Resources Department, West Valley-Mission Community College District

This is a primarily in-person, District Office based position. The employee relations, labor relations, and compliance activities for which you will be responsible require regular on-site presence and support in order to interact directly with employees, managers and union representatives. The incumbent should expect this to be a primarily on campus/in person role.

Salary and Benefits:
