General Statement

Adjunct instructors teach courses within a specific discipline to a diverse student population on our main campus in Worcester and/or at additional satellite locations within our service area. We are especially interested in instructors who are qualified to teach both algebra-based and calculus-based physics lab courses. Courses assigned are primarily day courses, and responsibilities include instructional preparation, assessment of student performance and assistance to students. Adjunct faculty will attend a limited number of faculty meetings.

Job Requirements:

Minimum Qualifications

- Requires a Masters' degree in Economics or related discipline. Interested applicants who may not meet the qualifications as stated above are encouraged to put in writing precisely how their background and experience have prepared them for the responsibilities of this position.

Preferred Qualifications

- Advanced degree
Teaching/training experience
Demonstrated commitment to promoting diversity in the curriculum as appropriate
Ability to teach day, evening or weekend classes in more than one campus location.

Interested applicants who may not meet the qualifications as stated are encouraged to put in writing precisely how their background and experience have prepared them for the responsibilities of this position.
