General Summary: The primary responsibility of this position is to instruct/coach student athletes in how to perform their sport, including about training, physical health, good sportsmanship, teamwork, and safety. The coach will also be expected to handle other aspects of the sport, including recruiting and working with the Director of Student Life and/or Athletic Director on eligibility and other matters pertaining to the team.

Requirements:

Associate's degree required. Previous collegiate coaching experience and collegiate playing experience within sport strongly preferred. Knowledge and adherence to all current rules, by laws, and eligibility requirements governing the sport and as required by the sports regulatory athletic association(s). Valid driver's license and ability to operate College van. May require overnight travel. Clearances are required.

Duties:

1. Organize, communicate and conduct individual and team practices/exercises, identify student athletes' strengths and weaknesses to provide constructive feedback, balancing criticism with positivity and motivation. Teach/coach relevant rules, regulations, skills, tactics, techniques and equipment of the sport.
2. Promote and instruct student athletes about good sportsmanship, teamwork, and safety. Ensure that student athletes train and perform to a high standard of health and safety at all times. Advise about health and lifestyle issues.
3. Model sports-like behavior and maintain appropriate conduct towards players, officials, and spectators.
4. Recruit prospective athletes.
5. Prepare schedule and communicate games with athletes; attend and participate in all games.
6. Inventory, distribute, and collect all team uniforms and equipment. Prepare any necessary items and areas of the sport prior to practices or games.
7. Advertise and promote the sport on campuses and centers. Compile game and season statistics and submit to any organizations as necessary or required (e.g. newspaper, sport association reporting requirements).
8. Coordinate travel arrangements with Athletic Director/Director of Student Life and drive College vehicle as needed or required.
