Requisition Number: FAC00540

General Description

The Early Childhood (Birth - Grade 4) Education Program seeks vibrant and inventive colleagues to join our dynamic early childhood education faculty as we continue to support our NAEYC accredited Early Childhood Education program. The goal is to find thoughtful educators engaged in best practice about children birth - age eight and the adults who interface with them (e.g., families, educators, community, colleagues, and support teams).

College Intro

Community College of Philadelphia is an open-admission, predominantly Black institution and a minority-serving institution which provides access to higher education for all who may benefit. CCP's Strategic Plan affirms the College's long-standing commitment to quality, access, affordability and upward mobility while including an emphasis on diversity, equity and inclusion. This plan firmly plants student success at the center of all efforts, establishing the means for each student to achieve their goals.

Teaching faculty are an integral part of the larger Academic and Student Success Division at CCP including Workforce Development or Career Training. The Academic and Student Success Division is a community of learners committed to student success as demonstrated through equitable and measurable outcomes, innovative practices, relevant curriculum, quality learning, and a rewarding student experience. As a minority-serving institution, CCP faculty contribute significantly to our collective efforts to improve student success and eliminate racial equity gaps through the utilization of inclusive and high-quality teaching practices.

Specific Responsibilities

- Generate and disseminate an innovative early childhood theory to practice model to students through research past, present, and future.
- Instruct on informing practices and policy that transform the lives of young children and their families, educators, and health professionals.
- Commitment to the College's Mission: Demonstrate a sense of connection and responsibility for helping the College to achieve success through a commitment to its mission, vision, and values.
- External and Internal Community Relations: Actively participate in the academic life of the College; including participation in graduation, recruitment events, general assemblies, student life
