At the heart of our work is a deep belief that learning should be accessible, meaningful, and rooted in community. Our mission is to empower individuals of all ages and backgrounds to grow, connect, and thrive, whether they are exploring new interests, building job skills, or continuing their journey as lifelong learners.

We serve youth, job seekers, working adults, curious minds, and passionate hobbyists by creating inclusive pathways that help everyone find their people and their purpose. Through dynamic programming, local partnerships, and a welcoming environment, we're building a community where education doesn't just happen in the classroom-it happens everywhere, for everyone.

Job Description:

The Community Education office is actively seeking enthusiastic and skilled instructors to lead non-credit classes designed for youth, teens, and families. Our current programs include seasonal camps, high school enrichment classes, and family-friendly offerings that encourage learning across generations. We are always looking to expand these opportunities and welcome new ideas that engage younger learners and families in fun, meaningful, and educational experiences. If you have a passion for teaching and enjoy working with youth or multigenerational audiences, we invite you to be part of our growing and dynamic community.

Adjunct faculty will:

- Develop and teach in the assigned subject(s) and level(s) in new or existing programs.
- Fulfill administrative requirements, meet established deadlines and complete required training.

Hiring Range: $40.00-60.00/hour

This posting will be used to obtain a pool of qualified candidates. As teaching needs arise, applications will be reviewed for possible interviews. The number of adjunct faculty hired varies from semester to semester, depending upon the needs of the department. Adjunct faculty hires and assignments are coordinated by the department chairs.

The Faculty Success Framework illustrates the fundamental elements of a faculty member's career at CLC. Its purpose is to support a culture of continual faculty development and to provide full but flexible paths for faculty to both consistently contribute to student success efforts and cultivate professional fulfillment. Our Guiding Principles for Teaching and Learning Excellence (CLC CARES) outline the qualities we expect CLC faculty will exemplify in their professional and pedagogical engagement with students.

Applications will be accepted on an ongoing basis. Your application can remain under consideration for the academic year. You may check your status at any time by logging into jobs@clcollinois.edu with your username and password. Thanks for being patient with the adjunct faculty hiring process.
