Job Description:

The Community Education office is seeking experienced professionals and passionate instructors to lead career-focused, non-credit courses that prepare learners for the workforce. We are especially eager to grow programs that provide real-world experience including job shadowing, externships, hands-on projects, and resume-building opportunities. If you're committed to helping individuals gain practical skills, industry insight, and a competitive edge in today's job market, we encourage you to join us in shaping the next generation of career-ready learners.

Adjunct faculty will:

- Develop and teach in the assigned subject(s) and level(s) in new or existing programs.
- Fulfill administrative requirements, meet established deadlines and complete required training.
- Stay current in compliance training, including compliance under Title IX "Responsible Employee" and, if applicable, Clery Act Campus Security Authority as a condition of employment.
- Agree to and follow appropriate College and department policies and procedures.

This posting will be used to obtain a pool of qualified candidates. As teaching needs arise, applications will be reviewed for possible interviews. The number of adjunct faculty hired varies from semester to semester, depending upon the needs of the department. Adjunct faculty hires and assignments are coordinated by the department chairs.

The Faculty Success Framework illustrates the fundamental elements of a faculty member's career at CLC. Its purpose is to support a culture of continual faculty development and to provide full but flexible paths for faculty to both consistently contribute to student success efforts and cultivate professional fulfillment. Our Guiding Principles for Teaching and Learning Excellence (CLC CARES) outline the qualities we expect CLC faculty will exemplify in their professional and pedagogical engagement with students.

Applications will be accepted on an ongoing basis. Your application can remain under consideration for the academic year. You may check your status at any time by logging into jobs@clcollinois.edu with your username and password. Thanks for being patient with the adjunct faculty hiring process.
