Description

Equity and Diversity

The District is strongly committed to achieving staff diversity and the principles of equal opportunity employment. The District encourages a diverse pool of applicants and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, age, religion, marital status, disability, or sexual orientation in any of its policies, procedures or practices. In fact, the college encourages applications from all segments of qualified people.

Closing Date

This position will close on January 29th, 2026 at 11:59 PM (or when 150 applications are received, whichever occurs sooner).

College Profile

Cerritos College is ranked 14th among the top 100 schools with the highest Hispanic enrollment in the United States by the United States Department of Education. Cerritos College serves as a comprehensive community college for southeastern Los Angeles County. Communities within the college's district include Artesia, Bellflower, Cerritos, Downey, Hawaiian Gardens, La Mirada, Norwalk, and portions of Bell Gardens, Lakewood, Long Beach, Santa Fe Springs and South Gate. Cerritos College offers degrees and certificates in more than 180 areas of study in nine divisions. Enrollment currently averages 20,000 students. Visit Cerritos College online at <http://www.cerritos.edu>.

Department Profile

The Woodworking Manufacturing Technologies (WMT) Department is one of six departments within the Technology Division and is part of the Applied Technology and Skilled Trades Learning and Career Pathway. The department offers associate degrees and certificate programs in cabinetmaking, furniture making, CNC woodworking, and general woodworking. WMT faculty bring substantial industry experience to their teaching, with instructors currently or formerly employed in the woodworking field. Instruction emphasizes hands-on skill development, safe shop practices, and preparation for employment in contemporary woodworking and manufacturing environments. Students in the program are primarily focused on earning a degree or certificate and entering or advancing in the woodworking trades. The department is housed in state-of-the-art facilities equipped to support traditional and digital woodworking processes, providing students with access to modern tools and technologies aligned with industry standards. This faculty position requires the ability to teach a variety of courses and availability for instruction during daytime, evening, and weekend hours, consistent with the needs of a diverse
