Description

Equity and Diversity

The District is strongly committed to achieving staff diversity and the principles of equal opportunity employment. The District encourages a diverse pool of applicants and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, age, religion, marital status, disability, or sexual orientation in any of its policies, procedures or practices. In fact, the college encourages applications from all segments of qualified people.

Closing Date

This position will close on January 30th, 2026 at 11:59 PM (or when 150 applications are received, whichever occurs sooner).

College Profile

Cerritos College is ranked 14th among the top 100 schools with the highest Hispanic enrollment in the United States by the United States Department of Education. Cerritos College serves as a comprehensive community college for southeastern Los Angeles County. Communities within the college's district include Artesia, Bellflower, Cerritos, Downey, Hawaiian Gardens, La Mirada, Norwalk, and portions of Bell Gardens, Lakewood, Long Beach, Santa Fe Springs and South Gate. Cerritos College offers degrees and certificates in more than 180 areas of study in nine divisions. Enrollment currently averages 20,000 students. Visit Cerritos College online at <http://www.cerritos.edu>.

Department Profile

The English Department is in the Liberal Arts Division at Cerritos College and is one of the largest departments on campus. The successful candidate will join twenty-two full-time and more than sixty part-time faculty in serving a highly diverse student body. In 2024-2025, we served more than 8,000 students. Our faculty also teach dual enrollment classes at about ten high schools in our service area.

The successful candidate for this position's primary teaching assignment will be composition and/or critical thinking classes for our general student population. In addition, the department offers an associate degree in English and a certificate in creative writing, so assignments may also include literature and creative writing classes. While online and remote classes are available, the candidate must be able to teach on-campus and must be a resident of California at the time of employment.

English faculty will be expected to contribute to the campus community and to work collaboratively with college success programs and interdisciplinary departments to support students in their academic and
