Austin Community College is a public two-year institution that serves a diverse population of approximately 41,000 credit students each Fall and Spring semester. We embrace our identity as a community college, as reflected in our mission statement. We promote student success and community development by providing affordable access, through traditional and distance learning modes, to higher education and workforce training, including appropriate applied baccalaureate degrees, in our service area.

As a community college committed to our mission, we seek to recruit and retain a workforce that:

- Reflects the diversity of our community
- Values intellectual curiosity and innovative teaching
- Is attracted by the college's mission to promote equitable access to educational opportunities
- Cares about student success and collaborates on strategies to facilitate success for under-represented populations
- Welcomes difference and models respectful interaction with others
- Engages with the community both within and outside of ACC

Commitment to Equity and Inclusion

ACC is committed to the ongoing systemic changes needed to ensure the increased recruitment, inclusion, retention, and completion of historically underserved and underrepresented populations. Through continual strategic community engagement and professional development of administrators, faculty, staff, and students, the college demonstrates its dedication to fostering a culture and climate for equitable outcomes.

ACC is proud to serve a diverse student body as an open-access and low-cost institution. Dedicated faculty members are excellent professors who help students achieve their educational goals and are sensitive to our students' diverse cultures and socio-economic backgrounds. In 2017 our faculty adopted a Statement of ACC Faculty Values. This Statement affirms that ACC's faculty members value collaboration, service, agency, scholarship, inclusion, and teaching, all of which attest to our commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusion at the heart of our mission.

The Director of Talent holds a vital role in fostering the attraction, retention, growth and success of Austin Community College employees. Reporting directly to the Human Resources Vice Chancellor, this position is responsible for designing, implementing, and overseeing comprehensive talent development programs while managing the performance evaluation process. The incumbent will use a data-driven focus that sets priorities for improvements aligned to ongoing strategic imperatives. The incumbent will collaborate closely with various departments and HR partners (such as the Employee Relations Officer, HR Business Partners, HR Communications, Ombudsperson, and Faculty Learning & Development) to ensure seamless alignment of performance goals with professional development initiatives and contribute to the overall advancement of the college community and its employer value.

Job Description:

Description of Duties and Tasks

Essential duties and responsibilities include the following. Other duties may be assigned.

- Program Development:
 - Design and implement talent development programs that support talent attraction, retention, and professional growth.
 - Collaborate with HR partners, department heads, and stakeholders to identify key skill areas and create targeted development initiatives.
- Training and Workshops:
 - Coordinate and facilitate training sessions, workshops, and seminars to enhance employee skills and competencies.
 - Ensure training programs align with industry best practices, educational standards, and the specific needs identified by stakeholders in order to attract and retain top talent.
- Leadership Development:
 - Collaborate to design and execute leadership development programs to identify and nurture internal talent, and attract high-potential external talent.
 - Implement and manage channels for ongoing coaching and mentoring support to emerging leaders across the district.
- Performance Management:
 - Oversee the performance evaluation process, ensuring it aligns with institutional goals, values, and standards.
 - Manage the maintenance and execution of the performance management system, including job descriptions, standards of performance and performance evaluation instruments.
 - Provide coaching to supervisors regarding performance management related issues with their employees.
